Shindico
Succeeding By Helping Others Succeed

Sandy G. Shindleman CCIM, SIOR, CIPS
President and CEO, Shindico

Since 1975, Sandy has lived by his mission statement “Succeeding by helping others succeed.” Sandy has developed over 5 million square feet and has over 2 million square feet under development.

Designated as a CCIM (CCIM Institute), SIOR (Society of Industrial and Office Realtors) and CIPS (Certified International Property Specialist) designations, Sandy is a senior instructor for the CCIM Institute. Since 1980, he has traveled throughout Canada, the United States, Europe and Asia on behalf of the CCIM Institute. Sandy is the only Manitoban with the SIOR designation. A past recipient of the Entrepreneur of the Year award, he has lectured and appeared on panels for several international forums, universities and colleges globally.

Sandy is the founder of StorageVille Inc., a self-storage company and founder of Bridgmer Investment Properties Ltd., headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland. Sandy is also a founding partner in the Winnipeg Goldeyes Baseball Club’s Canwest Park and Shindico’s head office has been built with LEED principles to be a sustainable, energy efficient, work environment.
